Alaska Entrepreneurs Win Big in Business Ideas Competition

$93,000 in Seed Money Awarded for New Businesses in Bethel, Chevak, Dillingham and Mekoryuk

ANCHORAGE: Innovative residents of Bethel, Chevak, Dillingham and Mekoryuk won $93,000 in award money and one year of free mentoring and business coaching in the first-ever Alaska Marketplace competition. Finals were held in Anchorage on April 6, 2006, the culmination of many months of hard work by the more than 163 Alaska entrepreneurs who participated.

At the April event, 43 Alaska innovators presented their business ideas to a panel of statewide and national business experts, including Marc Stemp of the Bethel Native Corporation. Sponsor BP made a surprise contribution that more than doubled the original award pool from $200,000 to $500,000.

The Alaska Marketplace is open to Native and non-Native Alaskans with innovative ideas for businesses that benefit rural Alaska and its people. The 22 competition winners were from communities throughout the state, including five from this region:

- Michelle Sparck of Bethel received a $20,000 award for her company ArXotic Bath & Beauty Products, a line of designer cosmetics made from ingredients traditionally gathered from the tundra of the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta.
- DuWayne and Helen Johnson of Dillingham were awarded $8,000 for Alaska Sports Sleds, a business that will sell traditional, handmade wooden sleds over the internet.

- March Runner of Dillingham was awarded $20,000 for her company Four Winds, a quilting and beading enterprise that will provide instructions, supplies, production space and marketing for rural Alaska artisans.
- Ulric Ulroan of Chevak received $25,000 for Chevak Bird & Cultural Tours, a new business that will to bring the bird-watching community to the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta.
- John Oscar of Mekoryuk was awarded $20,000 for Nunivak Arts & Crafts, a business that will use otherwise-discarded reindeer skins, hides, hoofs and horns to revive traditional art forms.

Three People's Choice awards of $1,000 were also awarded for the general public's favorite proposals.

The Alaska Marketplace is patterned after the Development Marketplace (DM), a World Bank project, which held its first Innovation Marketplace in May 1998 for bank employees at the direction of James D. Wolfensohn, President of the World Bank, to develop new strategies to more effectively fight poverty. The DM has expanded to a global competition for innovative development ideas which the World Bank organizes and hosts every 18-24 months. Since 1998, the DM has invested more than $22 million in more than 370 innovative projects in 61 countries.

The Alaska Marketplace is a special project of the Alaska Federation of Natives. The first year featured strong partnerships with the Alaska Manufacturing Extension Partnership, BP, ConocoPhillips, Denali Commission, and the Telecommunications Development Fund. Other partners include the College of Rural Alaska, University of Alaska, Fairbanks and Alaska Village Initiatives.
